Recognition

1.1 Inclusions.

A. The University hereby recognizes the PBA as the exclusive representative for the purpose of collective bargaining with respect to wages, hours, and terms and conditions of employment for all employees included in the University of South Florida Law Enforcement Bargaining Unit as defined in Certification No. 1414 issued by the Florida Public Employees Relations Commission on August 12, 2003.

B. This Agreement includes all full-time and part-time employees in the classifications and positions listed in Appendix A of this Agreement, except for those individuals filling full-time and part-time positions excluded pursuant to Section 1.2.

1.2 Exclusions. This Agreement specifically excludes employees in positions designated temporary, emergency status, all persons paid from Other Personnel Services (OPS) Funds and those designated by order of the Public Employees Relations Commission as managerial or confidential.

1.3 Classes and Positions.

A. When the University establishes a new SWDII IRUPHUO\ NQRZ enforcement 36' classification or revises an existing classification so that its bargaining unit designation is changed, the University shall notify the PBA regarding the proposed bargaining unit designation of the class. The 2.4 "Employee Grievance Representative" means an employee who has been designated by the PBA to investigate grievances and to represent grievants when the PBA has been selected as the employee's representative.

2.5 "Permanent Status" is earned by an employee in a class, after successfully completing the specified probationary period for that class, which provides the employee with rights to remain in the class or to appeal adverse action taken against the employee while serving in the class. Once attained in any Staff class, permanent status is retained throughout continuous employment in the Staff at the University.

2.6 "President of the Florida Police Benevolent Association" includes his/her representative.

2.7 "University" means the University of South Florida, Board of Trustees, a public body corporate.

Article 3

PBA Business

3.1 Neither PBA representatives nor unit employees shall leave their posts or work stations for the purpose of investigating, presenting, handling or settling grievances without the express permission of the Division Commander(s) or corresponding officer on a Regional Campus. PBA representatives shall not contact any employee or other person concerning grievance matters or PBA business during either the working hours of

2. Within fourteen (14) days of the receipt of the Panel list, the parties will alternately strike an equal number of names until only one arbitrator remains. The remaining arbitrator will be the chosen arbitrator to hear the case. If the issue to be

L. The provisions of this section shall apply only to investigations covered by this section and shall not apply to any other form of investigation or discipline.

6.2 In cases where it is decided to relieve an employee from duty pending an investigation or other administrative action, the employee will remain on full salary and shall not lose any benefits during this period of time.

6.3 When an investigation by the University Police Department is completed, the Chief of Police or designee shall determine the disposition of the investigation according to the following:

A. Proper Conduct (Exonerated): The allegation is true, but the actions of the employee were consistent with University Police Department policy.

B. Improper Conduct (Sustained): The allegation is true and the actions of the employee were inconsistent with University Police Department policy.

C. Insufficient Evidence (Not Sustained): There is not sufficient evidence to prove or refute the allegation.

D. Unfounded Complaint: Either the allegation is demonstrably false or there is no credible evidence to support the allegation.

E. Not Involved: The investigation established that the employee named in the complaint was not involved in the alleged incident.

6.4 In the event that the disposition of the investigation is sustained, the Chief of Police or designee shall so inform the employee. The discipline resulting from investigations will be placed in the employee's personnel file.

6.5 When an employee is under investigation by the University Police Department as the result of a third party complaint, neither the officer, the PBA, nor any member of the Department shall make any public statements concerning the facts of the case until such time as the investigation has been concluded and action has been taken on result of such an investigation. This provision shall not preclude the confirmation of the fact that such an investigation is being conducted.

6.6 If a third party complaint is filed that alleges criminal conduct and, as a result of the investigation, substantial and competent evidence is adduced which proves that the charges are false, then such evidence may be submitted to the State Attorney for such action as he may deem appropriate. The term "third party complaint" as used in this Article shall apply to any complaint filed by a person who is not a sworn employee of the University of South Florida Police Department.

Article 7

Discipline

7.1 The University and the PBA encourage to the fullest degree, employee behavior which is positive and supportive of the goals of effective management and public safety. The parties recognize the need for progressive and appropriate discipline when an employee's conduct and job performance are inconsistent with said goals.

7.2 No permanent status employees shall be disciplined except for just cause. Progressive, consistent, and appropriate discipline will be administered according to the seriousness of the offense.

Loss of pay may be considered as part of disciplinary action. Nothing herein shall prevent the University from requiring repayment of sums due to the University.
