

MYTH

If I get mental health help at USF, my parents or academic program will find out.

TRUTH

USF Counselors will only share information if you are an imminent threat to yourself or someone else. USF mental health counseling is required by law to be confidential.